

5th Annual

Ghost Tour

Benefiting the restoration of
Point Sur Lightstation
State Historic Park

The evening of ghostly fun begins with a walking tour to the lighthouse in time to watch the sunset. Then on to the Barn where hearty refreshments will be served. Later, Pt. Sur's professional actor/story-teller, Kevin Hanstick, will recount stories of ghostly sightings and poltergeist activities. Dessert and hot drinks will be served in the Visitors' Center.

WHEN: Saturday, October 23 and Saturday, October 30, 2010 at 5:15 PM

WHERE: Point Sur Lightstation, 19 miles south of Rio Road, on Highway 1.

HOW MUCH: A $60.00 donation, tax deductible as allowed by law.

WHO: Recommended for anyone with a sense of fun, though not suitable for small children. People with disabilities must make arrangements when reserving. Tour size is limited to the first 40 people who reserve places.
